

BOULDER CITY EAGLES

Accountability:

We take responsibility for our actions and their consequences, and we respect others who do the same.

Respect:

We treat all individuals as we want to be treated. We value all staff, students, and families, and we treat them with kindness, courtesy, and politeness, even when we disagree.

Core Values

Integrity:

We are trustworthy. We practice open and honest communication. We strive to do the right thing for our school and our future.

Professionalism:

We behave, appear and communicate in ways that promote civility, expertise, and dedication to the important business of education.
