Getting Ready

What do I wear?

Appropriate Attire

Clothing: A light-colored shirt with a collar, dark slacks, socks, and dress shoes. Tie is optional. Or a dress, or nice pants and light colored shirt.

Appropriate shoes: No flip-flop sandals or athletic type shoes will be permitted. Be cautious in choosing heels – high heels may cause difficulties when navigating the steps to the stage and will become painful when standing on concrete for an hour.

Caps and gowns: Must not have anything attached to or written on the outside of either the cap or gown. Gowns need to be ironed or steamed. Be careful of temperature as they scorch easily.

The graduation cap mortar boards must remain free of any decorations.
